

Parent and Family Engagement

By Seattle University • Jun 04, 2024

Welcome to "Family Connections", our Seattle U family e-newsletter. We know how important parents and families are to our students' success. Our goal is to keep you updated on campus happenings and share information pertinent to parenting a college student.

Thank you Redhawk Families!

We recognize how central your support has always been to the success of your student. We also appreciate your support of Seattle U. You are an important part of our community.

We wish you and your student a restful summer and look forward to seeing many of you in Fall 2024! For families of our graduating Redhawks, congratulations! Your student couldn't have done it without you!

We will communicate with families of continuing students as needed over the summer. If you have questions, please don't hesitate to reach out to parents@seattleu.edu.

2024-25 FAFSA Update

- The rollout of the FAFSA for the 2024-25 academic year has been a rocky one, however many of the challenges students and families were facing have been addressed and filing is now easier. If your student hasn't already filed the 24-25 FAFSA, the time is now! Student Financial Services began sending out financial aid award offer letters to current, continuing Seattle University students this week. SFS is happy to answer any questions and can assist with troubleshooting the FAFSA form.
